

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Worth R. Christler was born on June 18, 1930 at Grady Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia to Worth Roscoe and Viola Christler; he was their fourth and youngest child alongside three older sisters: Cleater, Lillian, and Alice; and

WHEREAS,

Worth was educated in the Atlanta Public Schools system and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School; he furthered his education at Morehouse College where he earned his Bachelor's degree; and

WHEREAS,

Worth enjoyed a distinguished career with Atlanta Public Schools where he dedicating his efforts to the advancement of education and impacted generations of students, educators, and families; and

WHEREAS,

Worth was deeply involved with the American Bridge Association where he showcased his passion for bridge and his commitment to community connection through this intellectual endeavor; his engagement with the ABA underscored his love for the game and his intent to unite people around it, further demonstrating his commitment to personal interests and community service; and

WHEREAS,

Worth's proudest achievement was his family; he leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Gloria, five beloved children: Laverne, Bernard, Reaver, Valerie, and Freda, seven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and a host of extended family and friends;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Worth R. Christler for a life of integrity and dedication to his family and community, and does hereby proclaim Tuesday, February 27, 2024 as "WORTH R. CHRISTLER REMEMBRANCE DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.

Fulton County Board of Commissioners

Commissioner

Attest:

Clerk to the Commission

F U L T O N C O U N T Y