Prevention & Outreach Services at PADV

Partnership Against Domestic Violence (PADV) is committed to ending domestic violence through intervention, prevention, and community outreach. Our Prevention and Outreach Department, which includes Fulton County Legal Advocates and Community Outreach Advocates, plays a vital role in ensuring survivors access legal protection, emergency shelter, financial assistance, and essential health services while also working to prevent domestic violence through education and awareness efforts.

By providing legal advocacy, housing support, and direct engagement, PADV ensures that survivors have the tools to escape abuse, regain stability, and prevent re-victimization.

Legal Advocacy: Providing Protection and Shelter

For many survivors, the first step toward safety is obtaining a Temporary Protective Order (TPO) against their abuser. However, the legal process can be intimidating and complex, particularly for survivors who face economic and housing insecurity.

PADV's Fulton County Legal Advocates work within the Safe Families Office at the Fulton County Courthouse, providing survivors with:

- Legal guidance and emotional support as they seek TPOs.
- Assistance in navigating the court system to ensure they understand their rights.
- Immediate access to PADV's emergency shelter for survivors who cannot return home after filing a TPO.

In 2023, PADV's legal advocates:

- Assisted 7,152 survivors with legal support.
- Helped secure TPO approval for 95% of applicants who sought assistance.

Survivors who do not have a safe place to go often end up living in cars or in unstable situations due to lack of awareness or fear of shelters. PADV's legal advocates help bridge that gap by ensuring survivors know about emergency housing options and receive guidance in making informed decisions for themselves and their children.

Community Outreach: Safety Planning and Education

While PADV's legal advocates assist survivors in crisis, our Community Outreach Advocates work to prevent domestic violence by connecting survivors with life-saving resources before a crisis escalates.

Our Community Outreach Advocates:

- Provide financial assistance and housing support to help survivors avoid entering a shelter.
- Develop personalized safety plans to ensure survivors have strategies for escaping abuse.
- Conduct over 100 educational sessions annually, reaching students and adults to increase awareness of domestic violence services.

2023 Community Outreach Impact:

- 3,561 individuals engaged through workshops and events.
- Hundreds of survivors connected to financial aid, preventing homelessness.
- Increased use of legal protections and shelter services through proactive education.

By actively engaging the community, PADV's outreach team ensures that more survivors access critical resources early—before they are in immediate danger.

Emergency Shelter: A Pathway to Stability

For many survivors, leaving an abusive situation requires immediate relocation. PADV's emergency shelters provide a secure, confidential refuge, allowing survivors to focus on healing and rebuilding their lives.

PADV's outreach and legal advocates work together to ensure that:

- Survivors filing TPOs are connected to emergency shelter immediately if needed.
- Financial assistance is provided when shelter is not the best option.
- Survivors understand their housing options and transition plans.

In 2024, PADV provided shelter for 500 adults and children—a critical service for survivors with no safe place to turn.

Health & Wellness Priority: Ensuring Survivors Have Access to Healthcare

PADV recognizes that domestic violence survivors often face serious health challenges. Many lack health insurance and access to medical care, which can prevent them from receiving trauma care, counseling, or treatment for chronic conditions.

To address this, every survivor entering PADV's shelter is assessed for health insurance coverage. If a survivor does not have insurance, an Empowerment Advocate assists them in applying for coverage based on their individual or family needs.

By prioritizing health and wellness, PADV helps survivors:

- Access critical medical and mental health services.
- Reduce long-term health risks linked to domestic violence trauma.
- Increase their ability to live independently and rebuild their lives.

Ensuring survivors have access to healthcare is not just a service—it is a necessity for long-term stability.

Breaking the Cycle: Prevention Through Education

While legal advocacy and emergency shelter services address immediate needs, PADV is also committed to long-term prevention through education and awareness efforts.

Through school-based programs, professional training sessions, and community events, PADV's Prevention and Outreach team works to:

- Teach students about healthy relationships, helping prevent teen dating violence.
- Train professionals and community leaders to recognize and respond to domestic violence.
- Engage the broader community in conversations about domestic violence prevention and intervention.

In 2023, PADV's education and prevention programs reached over 3,500 individuals, ensuring that domestic violence awareness remains a community priority.

Partnership Against Domestic Violence (PADV) is requesting $40,000 to sustain critical emergency shelter operations, administrative leadership, and direct client assistance for survivors of domestic violence and their children in 2025.

Performance Period Allocation

Funds will be distributed evenly across two six-month performance periods:

- January – June 2025: $20,000
- July – December 2025: $20,000

Partnership Against Domestic Violence (PADV) is committed to reducing homelessness among domestic violence survivors by providing emergency shelter, legal advocacy, financial assistance, permanent supportive housing, job readiness support, and access to healthcare services. By addressing barriers to self-sufficiency, PADV ensures survivors have access to safe housing, economic stability, and long-term security.

During the performance period, PADV will report on the following key categories:

- Community Engagement: Expanding awareness and prevention efforts.
- Potential Instances of Homelessness Prevented: Intervening early to ensure survivors do not enter homelessness.
- Pathways to Self-Sufficiency Created: Providing survivors with housing stability, financial independence, and supportive services.
- Agency-Defined Performance Measures: Increasing job readiness training, launching a crisis support online chat, and ensuring every shelter resident has health insurance.

PADV will track and measure progress using Caseworthy, our Homeless Management Information System (HMIS), ensuring accurate, data-driven reporting of outcomes.

1. Community Engagement to Increase Awareness and Prevention

Community engagement is a core strategy in preventing domestic violence-related homelessness. PADV will conduct educational workshops, speaking engagements, and outreach events to ensure that survivors, service providers, and the general public are aware of available resources before a crisis escalates.

2025 Community Engagement Milestones:

- Increase the number of community engagements from 100 to 120 events.
- Expand outreach efforts to underserved communities by partnering with schools, faith-based organizations, and employers.
- Engage over 4,000 individuals through educational workshops, tabling events, and webinars—a 12% increase from 2023.
- Distribute over 5,000 informational materials to community members on domestic violence prevention and housing assistance resources.

PADV's community engagement efforts will directly contribute to the prevention of homelessness by ensuring that survivors learn about their legal rights, emergency shelter options, and financial assistance programs before they reach a crisis point.

2. Number of Individuals Whose Barriers to Self-Sufficiency Are Eliminated/Reduced

Survivors often face multiple barriers that prevent them from achieving self-sufficiency, including:

- Lack of stable housing
- Economic abuse and financial dependence on the abuser
- Limited access to employment and education
- Unresolved legal issues
- Mental health and trauma-related challenges

PADV provides targeted interventions to eliminate or reduce these barriers, helping survivors gain housing stability, financial independence, and access to critical services.

2025 Self-Sufficiency Milestones:

- Increase the number of survivors receiving financial assistance from 250 to 300.
- Expand employment support services, ensuring at least 150 survivors obtain stable employment or job training.
- Provide financial literacy education to 200 survivors, equipping them with skills to manage budgets and savings.
- Assist at least 100 survivors in securing legal protections that prevent economic abuse and displacement.

Through case management, financial support, and advocacy, PADV will remove obstacles to self-sufficiency, ensuring that survivors no longer need emergency shelter or crisis intervention services.

3. Number of Potential Instances of Homelessness Prevented

PADV's goal is to prevent homelessness before it occurs. Many survivors do not need emergency shelter if they can access short-term financial assistance, relocation support, or legal advocacy.

2025 Homelessness Prevention Milestones:

- Increase homelessness prevention efforts, assisting at least 500 survivors in maintaining stable housing (up from 429 in 2023).
- Provide financial assistance to 350 survivors, ensuring they do not lose their housing.
- Expand outreach and awareness efforts to ensure more survivors access support services before reaching a crisis point.

Through emergency financial aid, rental support, and early intervention, PADV will significantly reduce the number of survivors experiencing homelessness.

Agency Defined Performance Measure(s):

Agency-Defined Performance Measures

In addition to the County's required performance measures, PADV will track Agency-Defined Performance Measures that enhance survivor outcomes beyond standard homelessness prevention services.

2025 Agency Performance Milestones:

- Increase job readiness training onsite for survivors in shelter and supportive housing, ensuring at least 200 participants receive employment-focused skills training.

- Launch an online chat/digital crisis support option for survivors, extending the accessibility of PADV's emergency crisis line.
- Ensure that 100% of shelter survivors are connected to medical insurance and local clinics within Fulton County for continued health and wellness support.

These additional measures align with PADV's comprehensive approach to survivor empowerment, ensuring survivors gain financial stability, expanded access to crisis support, and healthcare security.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

CONSUMER DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Carahsoft OBO Fulton County, Georgia (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
