

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

North Atlanta High School is known for its high caliber of academic, social and cultural education, and through holistic learning and collaboration among students, educators, families, and community, fosters an environment of critical thinkers who are globally and culturally aware; and since the Class of 2004 of North Atlanta High School walked across the graduation stage on May 24, 2004, our Warrior graduates have made historic and impactful contributions to society as engineers, architects, lawyers, entrepreneurs, military personnel, historians, senior managers, entertainers, public health officials, politicians, educators, producers, writers, partners in our firms, researchers, explorers, and many other areas; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

the Class of 2004 of North Atlanta High School continues in the motto of, "Diversity, Scholarship, Community," as volunteers and supporters of the school through the North Atlanta High School Alumni Association, providing scholarships for students, and resources for teachers and administrators; and the Class of 2004 mourns the loss of three classmates: Felecia Baker, Brittain Serrano, and Johnathon Williams, who all left a positive mark in the world and will always be remembered by their classmates with fond memories; and the Class of 2004 senior motto states, "The best is yet to come", as the class comes together after 20 years to celebrate achievements and accomplishments, and to reminisce and reignite friendships and partnerships;

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes North Atlanta High School's Class of 2004 for their outstanding contributions to society, and celebrates their 20th class "WARRR-ZONEEEE" reunion, and does hereby proclaim Friday, May 24, 2024 as "NORTH ATLANTA HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 2004 APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
