

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Matthew Thompson is a native of Atlanta, Georgia and a proud senior at Westlake High School in Atlanta, Georgia; throughout his high school career, Matthew has distinguished himself as a disciplined scholar, strategic thinker, and committed servant leader; and

WHEREAS,

Matthew serves as the Secretary of State for Georgia High School Democrats where he works to expand voter education, strengthen civic engagement, and build sustainable youth power across Georgia; and

WHEREAS,

Matthew also serves as President of the Science National Honor Society at Westlake High School, where under his leadership, the organization focuses on structured service projects, mentorship programs for middle school students, and community partnerships that allow students to apply knowledge beyond the classroom; and

WHEREAS,

outside of his studies, Matthew serves as Parliamentarian and Financial Trustee at Greater Victory Christian Center, where he helps maintain order, accountability, and financial integrity within the organization; and

WHEREAS,

Matthew has committed over 1,000 hours of community service to initiatives that address food insecurity, neighborhood beautification, youth engagement, and civic awareness; his work consistently focuses on creating spaces where others can contribute their time, talent, and resources to uplift communities across the region;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board Of Commissioners recognize Matthew Thompson for his outstanding civic participation and service to his community, and does hereby proclaim Sunday, March 1, 2026, as "MATTHEW THOMPSON APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
