

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Fulton County is proud to support innovation, entrepreneurship, and legacy-building initiatives that serve the greater good of our communities; and

WHEREAS,

Heir Tight, founded by Natalie Michon Alexander, stands as a visionary digital platform committed to empowering families with tools to preserve, protect, and pass on vital life, legal, and legacy information; and

WHEREAS,

Heir Tight has pioneered a transformative ecosystem that bridges generations—offering proactive solutions for estate planning, document management, and secure family communication—thereby making individuals feel seen, safe, and prepared; and

WHEREAS,

the Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, held on November 1, 2025, at The Legendary Ford Hall, marks the official launch of this revolutionary platform, ushering in a new era of whole-life planning for families, professionals, and communities alike; and

WHEREAS,

this milestone celebration brings together investors, ambassadors, civic leaders, and citizens in unity, honor, and vision to support a platform built not only for end-of-life preparedness, but for everyday life, legacy, and love;

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes the importance of digital legacy planning, intergenerational communication, and the power of being prepared, and does hereby proclaim Saturday, November 1, 2025, as "HEIR TIGHT APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.

Fulton County Board of Commissioners

Attest:

Commissioner

Clerk to the Commission

F U L T O N C O U N T Y