

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Queens Leadership Services (QLS) has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to improving the quality of life for seniors throughout the Metro Atlanta community by providing essential programs, resources, and compassionate care; and under the dedicated leadership of Mrs. Irene Richardson, QLS has grown to employ more than 50 individuals while offering a wide range of services designed to meet the diverse needs of older adults, including transportation assistance, health education, health screenings, and other supportive services that promote independence and wellness; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

Mrs. Richardson has established a vision for the future through the development of the QLS Endowment Fund and the pursuit of assisted living and hospice facilities in Southwest Atlanta, ensuring that seniors continue to receive quality care and support for generations to come; and

WHEREAS,

prior to founding Queens Leadership Services, Mrs. Richardson served with distinction in public service, retiring from the Social Security Administration and serving as an Administrative Assistant to the American Consul General in Asmara, Ethiopia, where she was recognized for her volunteer leadership and service to the Asmara International Community School; and through her lifelong dedication to public service, community engagement, and advocacy for older adults, Mrs. Richardson has positively impacted countless families throughout Fulton County and beyond, serving as an example of compassionate leadership and civic responsibility;

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners hereby recognize and honor Queens Leadership Services (QLS) and Mrs. Irene Richardson for their outstanding leadership, dedicated service, and lasting contributions to the citizens of Fulton County, and extends its sincere appreciation for their continued commitment to serving the senior community, and does hereby proclaim Tuesday, June 30, 2026, as "IRENE RICHARDSON APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
