

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

National Probation and Parole Week provides an important opportunity to recognize the vital contributions of Probation Officers and to raise awareness of the essential role they play in the juvenile and criminal justice systems; and community supervision serves as an essential alternative to incarceration by holding young people accountable for their actions, while accessing treatment and rehabilitation programs and maintaining family connections; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

the Probation Department of the Juvenile Court provides community supervision and uses evidence-based practices to reduce recidivism, strengthen families, and foster safer, healthier communities throughout Fulton County; and the success of community supervision in Fulton County is a direct result of the skill and dedication of its Probation Officers and the collaborative efforts of community partners, treatment providers, and the public; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

Fulton County's Probation Officers are dedicated professionals who carry out their duties with integrity, compassion, and professionalism, often under difficult and potentially dangerous conditions;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners commends the Fulton County Juvenile Court's Probation Department and Probation Officers for their commitment to supporting youth, strengthening families, and building safer communities; and does hereby proclaim the week of July 19 through 25, 2026, as "NATIONAL PROBATION AND PAROLE WEEK" in Fulton County, Georgia.
