

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Rev. Dr. Clifton Dawkins is a native of Woodruff, South Carolina and is the founding Pastor of True Worship Christian Fellowship Church in Atlanta, and the Chaplain Director for Fulton County Government where he presides over 300 indigent burials each year, in addition to grief counseling for county staff and residents; and

WHEREAS,

Rev. Dawkins, along with Vernon and Marie Krause, launched a non-profit initiative in 2021, Angie's Kitchen, in honor of the Krause's daughter, Angela, who passed away; and

WHEREAS,

Angie's Kitchen's mission is to provide hot meals, food and personal hygiene items to the homeless and underserved and has this year alone provided 50,000 meals to those in need, and

WHEREAS,

the family's goal is to not only offer help and hope to the underserved, but also spiritual inspiration in honor of their beloved Angela; and for the month of November, Angie's Kitchen reached a goal of 50,000 Fulton County residents fed since the inception of the program; Angie's Kitchen also aspires to build a community center that can serve up to 200 people daily in need so they can continue to get food, showers and necessary items to offer them some much needed relief;

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Rev. Clifton Dawkins and his selfless work with Angie's Kitchen to ensure that all residents are cared for with compassion and dignity, and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, November 2, 2022 as "REV. DR. CLIFTON DAWKINS APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
