

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Commissioner Liz Hausmann has served on the Fulton County Board of Commissioners since 2011, representing the City of Johns Creek, and portions of Alpharetta, Roswell, and Sandy Springs, with prior experience on the Inaugural Johns Creek City Council and Fulton County Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann’s extensive experience in local governance led her colleagues to name her to the leadership position of Fulton County Vice Chairman in 2015 and 2016, as well as in 2022; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann was instrumental in bringing services to her community with the establishment of the Maxwell Road Office and connected local businesses to reuse water from the Johns Creek Environmental Campus, renovation of all public libraries and the creation of two new library branches in North Fulton, installation of public art at Cauley Creek, and the re-opening of the Alpharetta Jail Annex in 2022; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann prioritized cooperation with Fulton County Cities, and spurred the creation of regular meetings between the Board of Commissioners and Fulton Mayors, resulting in groundbreaking regional transportation and infrastructure solutions such as TSPLOST I and II, and the Fulton County Transit Master Plan; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, during Commissioner Hausmann’s tenure as the Executive Sponsor for Economic Development Fulton County experienced tremendous job creation, local business growth, and business relocations, all while maintaining the lowest responsible millage rate and tax burden to Fulton County taxpayers; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann also played an important role in maintaining the public health and safety of Fulton County and worked to outsource behavioral health services for more innovative and better health outcomes, raised awareness of the dangers of substance abuse and passed legislation providing Fulton’s first responders with Narcan at the beginning of the opioid epidemic which enabled them to save lives, and passed legislation to share CARES Act resources with Fulton Cities during the beginning of the COVID 19 Pandemic; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann’s leadership extended beyond the borders of Fulton County and included service to Statewide organizations such as the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, Fort McPherson Local Redevelopment Authority Board, the Georgia House Commission on Transit Governance and Finance, and the Association County Commissioners of Georgia in leadership positions on the Board of Managers, Executive Committee, and Policy Council; as well as service to National Association of Counties with two terms as Chairman of the Transportation Policy Steering Committee; and

FULTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, Commissioner Hausmann’s service as a Fulton County Commissioner will conclude at the end of 2022 as she leaves behind an aspirational legacy of achieving success through regional collaboration;

FULTON COUNTY

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Board of Commissioners of Fulton County commends Vice Chairman Liz Hausmann for her longstanding service to the citizens of Fulton County and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, December 21, 2022 as “VICE CHAIRMAN LIZ HAUSMANN APPRECIATION DAY” in Fulton County, Georgia.
