Activities, Services, & Implementation

CHGA leverages a culturally competent, comprehensive, and youth-centered model, integrating nationally recognized best practices, including trauma-informed care and True Colors' LGBTQ+ inclusion curriculum. These methods will address the following CSP Funding Priorities:

Funding Priority #1: Street Outreach Program (18 Fulton County Youth)

For more than ten years, our highly regarded outreach team (SOP), traveling in identifiable vans and on foot, has provided a consistent presence and responded to a critical service gap for youth experiencing homelessness and escaping trafficking in the Metro Atlanta region. The SOP works a minimum of 40 hours each to identify youth living on the streets; inform them about community resources; conduct risk, human trafficking, and vulnerability evaluations; provide gateway and drop-in services; provide transportation to emergency shelter and/or referral to partner organizations; and promote public awareness. The team builds relationships to encourage entry into our suite of services, integrating harm reduction, positive youth development, and holistic wellness into a trauma-informed model of care. They offer access to our drop-in center, crisis shelter, transitional living programs, and rapid rehousing program, which all provide additional screening for immediate needs, risk, trauma, and health problems; intensive client-centered case management; behavioral health and substance abuse treatment and referrals; access to physical health care; life skills development; educational and workforce development support; housing assessment and placement; and community connection.

When youth express interest in our programs, SOP transports them to the safety of our campus for drop-in services such as a hot meal, showers, and laundry facilities. At this time, our Drop-in Youth Services Specialist evaluates their needs and begins working with them toward self-sufficiency. Street Outreach is vital to our mission as it allows us to provide immediate assistance to youth not in our residential programs and connect them to housing resources in the community.

Funding Priority #2: Rapid Rehousing (2 Fulton County Youth)

CHGA also operates a rapid rehousing program (RRH). Youth identified for this program are not chronically homeless and have fewer barriers to stability. Youths are housed in the community rather than on our campus. However, they still have access to all our supportive services as needed, including case management services, to ensure that they remain stable and connected to community resources as needed. Recently, RRH has been impacted by several external factors that CHGA continues monitoring. We modify our program to ensure youth experiencing homelessness receive the support they need to remain safe despite these barriers. As previously stated, Atlanta is considered one of the most overinflated housing markets in the United States. Due to housing costs outpacing living wages, many of our youth have experienced challenges securing safe and affordable housing options in Fulton County. Jobs they have worked hard to obtain do not provide salaries to support the high rent costs. Available units are usually located in high-crime areas and do not present as safe dwellings. Many youths have other barriers to overcome, such as lacking required documentation and not passing required background checks.

RRH helps youth overcome these barriers while in permanent housing. Housing navigators work tirelessly to guide our youth through the housing solutions process by working collaboratively with our partners to ensure the specialized population of youth we serve to obtain needed documents, employment, and safe, affordable housing on their journey to independent and sustainable living.

Funding Priority #5: Transitional Housing (5 Fulton County Youth)

CHGA has a 32-bed transitional living program, of which eight beds are designated for young parents and/or pregnant youth and their infants/children. Youth are housed for up to 18 months while they work with a case manager to increase their self-sufficiency. Youth in this program have access to all of our onsite supportive services, which are targeted to serve the youth population and are designed to assist them along their paths to lasting stability. Supportive services include substance abuse treatment, behavioral health treatments for persons fleeing domestic and community violence, and others discussed more thoroughly below.

Supportive Services (25 Fulton County Youth)

All youth engaging with CHGA have access to our full suite of comprehensive support services housed in our CSC. The CSC is open every weekday, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, to all youth experiencing homelessness ages 16-24, including after they complete our programs. Supportive services address common barriers to self-sufficiency, such as physical health, mental/behavioral health, workforce development, education, and life skills. Additionally, youth have access to a case manager who assists them in applying for cash and noncash benefits, including SNAP, TANF, WIC, SSI, and Medicaid. These services are provided to youth at no cost and are designed to meet the specific needs of youth populations.

At program entry, all youth are assigned a case manager. The case manager and resident youth work together to create an individualized case plan. The first objective is to identify and help meet basic needs for food, shelter, and health. Once basic needs are met, case managers and youth identify goals and aspirations for employment, education, cultural and spiritual fulfillment, and personal growth. We encourage all youth to voice their preferences and values and seek to provide services and assistance that affirm and honor their identities and beliefs. Case managers meet weekly with youth to monitor progress toward individual goals and identify any new or emerging needs. Based on their case plans, staff identify needs and goals that can be met in-house or through referrals and help clients access any enabling services as appropriate.

Other supportive services provided by CHGA include:

- Life skills classes in both individual and group settings. Topics include financial literacy, money management/budgeting, consumer education, use of credit/credit repair, interpersonal skill-building, educational advancement, job attainment skills, mental and physical health care, healthy relationships, and individual, family, and/or group counseling and parent education.
- Recreational opportunities such as visiting state parks and encouraging residents to pursue other healthy recreational activities of their choosing.
- Educational and workforce development programs that connect youth to a variety of educational opportunities and/or job training in multiple industries.

CONSUMER DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Carahsoft OBO Fulton County, Georgia (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
