5. All subgrantees of Federal financial assistance, regardless of the particular funding source, the amount of the grant award, or the number of employees in the workforce, are subject to the prohibitions against unlawful discrimination. Accordingly, the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) investigates subgrantees that are the subject of discrimination complaints from both individuals and groups. In addition, based on regulatory criteria, CJCC selects a number of subgrantees each year for compliance reviews, audits that require subgrantees to submit data showing that they are providing services equitably to all segments of their service population and that their employment practices meet equal employment opportunity standards.

If the subgrantee has less than 50 employees, receives an award of less than $25,000, or is a nonprofit organization, medical institution, educational institution, or Indian tribe, then it is exempt from the EEOP requirement. To claim the exemption, the subgrantee must complete and submit Section A of the Certification Form, which is available online at <https://www.ojp.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/cert.pdf>.

If the subgrantee is a government agency or private business, receives an award of at least

In addition, the subgrantee must complete Section B of the Certification Form and return it to OCR. The Certification Form is available at <https://www.ojp.gov/about/ocr/pdfs/cert.pdf>.

Section 42.302), approved by OCR, is a violation of its Certified Assurances and may result in either (1) suspension of funding until such time as the subgrantee is in compliance or (2) termination of the award. CERTIFICATE OF NON-SUPPLANTING

Federal law requires that grant funds received by the Department of Justice, not be used to supplant or replace funds that would normally be available or appropriated for the same purpose. As the subgrantee and administrator of VOCA funds on behalf of the district attorneys and solicitors-general, PACGA is obligated to ensure that prosecutors' offices do not violate these non-supplanting requirements. This certificate of non-supplanting is to be signed by the recipient Victim-Witness Program's District Attorney or Solicitor General. Although the Prosecuting Attorneys' Council of Georgia may provide guidance on VOCA budgets, and the Criminal Coordinating Council of Georgia may approve VOCA budgets, it is contingent upon the VWAP program receiving federal funds to certify non-supplanting of local funds.

Supplanting Definition: Supplanting is considered the reduction of state or local funds for an activity specifically because federal funds are available (or expected to be available) to fund that same activity. Federal funds must be used to supplement existing state or local funds for program activities and may not replace state or local funds that have been appropriated or allocated for the same purpose. Additionally, federal funding may not replace state or local funding that is required by law. In those instances where a question of supplanting arises, the sub-grantee or grantee may be required to substantiate that the reduction in non-federal resources occurred for reasons other than the receipt or expected receipt of federal funds.

CERTIFICATION

The recipient certifies that any funds awarded through the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) will be used to supplement existing funds for program activities and will not replace (supplant) nonfederal funds that have been appropriated or allocated for the purpose of providing services to victims of crime. The recipient understands that supplanting violations can result in a range of penalties, including suspension of future funds under this program, suspension of disbursement from federal grants, recoupment of monies provided under this grant and civil and/or criminal liabilities.
