

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

The Fulton County Citizens Commission on the Environment has been empowered by the Board of Commissioners to advise and to identify development projects, community organizations and individuals in Fulton County that advocate and exemplify environmentally sound practices; and

WHEREAS,

The Fulton County Citizens Commission on the Environment supports recognizing environmental achievements and accomplishments through a formal process and has established an environmental awards program to that end; and

WHEREAS,

Kendall Rae's Green Heart is an organization committed to cultivating sustainable food networks and empowering youth to become future leaders in agriculture; and

WHEREAS,

Kendall Rae's Green Heart is founded by Kendall Rae Johnson, the youngest certified farmer in Georgia; her mission is to create pathways for young people to engage with STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Agriculture, and Mathematics) skills, entrepreneurship, and sustainable farming practices; and

WHEREAS,

Kendall Rae's Green Heart initiatives include youth-centered farm projects, technical assistance for aspiring farmers, and an emphasis on environmental stewardship through smart agriculture and energy-efficient practices; and

WHEREAS,

Kendall Rae's Green Heart's mission goes beyond agriculture; it's about nurturing young leaders who are passionate about climate-smart practices, clean water, and a healthier earth;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of Fulton County recognizes the environmental contributions of Kendall Rae's Green Heart and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 15, 2025, as, "KENDALL RAE'S GREEN HEART APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
