

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Caroline King is the founder and director of Cinema Life, a collective of film festivals and creative platforms that champion emerging filmmakers, with a strong emphasis on women, diverse perspectives, and underrepresented talent; and

WHEREAS,

Caroline produces multiple annual festivals and events, including the Atlanta Women's Film Festival, Women's Comedy Film Festival, Atlanta Comedy Film Festival, and Georgia Shorts Film Festival; her work has created opportunities for thousands of filmmakers from around the world to showcase their work, connect with industry professionals, and grow their careers within a supportive and inclusive creative environment; and

WHEREAS,

Caroline has a background in comedy from The Second City and iO Chicago, and she is the creator and host of Bitch Beer, a multimedia platform turned television series that highlights women in the craft beer industry, further demonstrating her commitment to amplifying underrepresented voices across industries; and

WHEREAS,

Caroline is a marketing leader who oversees strategic partnerships, community engagement, and large-scale campaigns across multiple markets; her ability to merge creativity with community impact has made her a driving force in Atlanta's cultural landscape; and

WHEREAS,

Caroline continues to expand access to the arts, foster meaningful connections, and create platforms that inspire, uplift, and celebrate the next generation of storytellers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognize Caroline King for her tireless work highlighting the many contributions of women in the film industry, and does hereby proclaim Friday, March 27, 2026, as "CAROLINE KING APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.

Fulton County Board of Commissioners

Attest:

Commissioner

Clerk to the Commission

F U L T O N C O U N T Y