

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Preservation Month serves as an opportunity to honor the people, organizations, and institutions dedicated to safeguarding our shared heritage and promoting historical education and civic engagement throughout our communities; and

WHEREAS, the Atlanta History Center, through its Community Collaborations Initiative, has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to preserving and amplifying the stories, milestones, and experiences that define the history of Fulton County and the greater Atlanta community; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of Dr. La'Neice Littleton, the Atlanta History Center successfully partnered with Fulton County Government in the historic opening of the 2000 Fulton County Time Capsule, providing residents and visitors with a meaningful reflection on the County's history, growth, and progress over the past 25 years; and

WHEREAS, this collaborative effort also included the creation and resetting of the Fulton County 2050 Time Capsule, ensuring that the voices, aspirations, and accomplishments of today's residents will be preserved for generations yet to come; and

WHEREAS, the Atlanta History Center's Community Collaborations Initiative and Kenan Research Center further commemorated this milestone through its 2025 County History Exhibit & Timeline, which highlights significant events, leaders, and transformative moments that have shaped Fulton County's enduring legacy;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners hereby recognizes and celebrates National Preservation Month and honors the Atlanta History Center's Community Collaborations Initiative, and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 20, 2026, as "NATIONAL PRESERVATION MONTH" in Fulton County, Georgia,
