

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Pamela Denise Freeman was born February 6, 1952 in Atlanta, Georgia and was educated in the Atlanta Public School System, and graduated from L. J. Price High School in 1970; and

WHEREAS,

Pamela continued her education at Adorne Beauty College where she earned her Cosmetology diploma and she attended Rodec International Design School and became an Interior Designer; and

WHEREAS,

Pamela was the Sole Proprietor of Masterpiece Hair Care Salon for 30 years, and she was the House Operations Chair for the Decorator's Show House; she also worked extensively in the St. Regis Hotel Project in Buckhead; and

WHEREAS,

Pamela was a force in the community and an activist for causes to improve the quality of life for all those she encountered; and

WHEREAS,

Pamela was often a strong voice on critical issues facing the community, and was the "quiet storm" behind the successful elections of several leaders of Fulton County, including Sheriff Myron Freeman, Mayor Khalid Kamau; and Commissioner Khadijah Abdur-Rahman; and

WHEREAS,

She and her husband, despite political colors, were always willing to stop and provide spiritual uplift to those who sought public leadership roles in and throughout metro Atlanta; and

WHEREAS,

Pamela was a devoted wife to her husband Myron and mother to their only daughter, Myla C. Freeman;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Pamela Denise Freeman for a life of integrity and devotion to her family and community, and does hereby proclaim Tuesday, January 25, 2022 as "PAMELA DENISE FREEMAN REMEMBRANCE DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
