

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Jim Still served four years on the Mountain Park City Council before being elected as Mayor in 2008 and has launched numerous initiatives to improve the City during his four terms as Mayor, including developing the City's first web site and revising the City's Charter to make operations more efficient and productive; and the Mayor worked to establish Mountain Park's Citizens Communication System, a vital communication system that protects the safety of residents by alerting them in the event of an emergency; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

Mayor still helped establish the Mountain Park Community Co-op Garden that brings residents together to design, build and maintain the City's land by planting fruits, vegetables, and flowers; and

WHEREAS,

Mayor Still's hard work and involvement in the Craft Beer Festival, Oktoberfest and other events has raised much-needed money for the Mountain Park Volunteer Fire Department and Watershed Preservation Society; and

WHEREAS,

Mayor Still has donated his time and talent to numerous community programs, including Mayors for Meals that provides meals to our senior citizens, the Bike Ride to the Capitol to raise support for improved cycling trails, as well as the North Fulton Municipal Association and the Cherokee Municipal Association, two organizations that support and educate County leaders; and

WHEREAS,

Mayor Still is retiring from political office and looking forward to spending more time with his family and three rescued pets;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners commends Mountain Park Mayor Jim Still for his longstanding service to the citizens of Fulton County and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, December 6, 2023 as "MAYOR JIM STILL APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
