4. Payment typically takes 10-15 business days once we send the invoice to AP

Proposal Requirements and Deadlines

- All proposals to be submitted via email
- For those seeking feedback on draft proposals – content for review due no later than COB 8/8
- Proposals due 8/13
- All questions or requests for information should be sent via email to:
Alex.Frankcombe@fultoncountyga.gov
- Do not contact architects or other staff outside of this method. All answers and information requests will be shared with all applicants.

Proposal Content and Assessment

- Proposal should include the following:
 - A narrative description of the proposed artwork
 - Technical/Installation information e.g. how you plan to paint the mural, equipment, materials/paint types etc.
 - Timeline from appointment to installation
 - Conceptual design of the mural
- Your proposal will be assessed using the following criteria:
 - Artistic excellence and quality of the design
 - The extent to which the design meets the desired objectives
 - Appropriateness of the design (for a County owned-facility and for the Animal Services Facility)

Artwork Objectives:

- The primary objective of this mural is to convey the purpose of the Animal Services Facility, celebrate the animals within it, and evoke the emotional connection between humans and their adopted pets.
- The artwork should capture the joy, compassion, and love that accompanies the process of adopting an animal.
- The wall will ideally become the backdrop for residents and their new family member.
- The mural must incorporate the Fulton County logo, representing our commitment to animal welfare.

ANIMAL SERVICES FACILITY Public Art Project Finalist Presentation

FULTON COUNTY
arts & culture

Selected finalist: Rory Hawkins aka Catlanta

First Day of the Rest of Our Lives

The artist aims to encapsulate the profound emotions associated with pet adoption in a mural. This mural will depict a myriad of cherished moments from pet ownership, showcasing scenes from daily life of dogs, cats, and farm animals. The scenes will touch on aspects like play, socialization, feeding, and more. Designed with a scrapbook theme, the mural intends to be a backdrop for photos of new adopters and to represent the ongoing journey with pets. The color scheme will align with the Fulton County logo to maintain brand consistency and create a welcoming ambiance. Additionally, the mural will include intricate details about the facility's animal variety and services to engage both new visitors and regular attendees. The goal is to convey the multi-faceted, heartwarming experience of pet adoption, celebrating the numerous joyous memories and bonds that ensue.
