

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

The mission of Auntie Angie's House is to provide a secure, supportive environment for pregnant, single women who are struggling financially, facing homelessness, or are in violent relationships; and

WHEREAS,

its mission is also to eradicate the Black maternal health crisis through research, advocacy, support, education, and awareness; and

WHEREAS,

Auntie Angie's House was founded by Angela Stanton-King after her own experience of homelessness and seeking assistance at several shelters; she has since dedicated nearly 20 years of her life to helping women in similar situations; and

WHEREAS,

Auntie Angie's House provides essential resources and comprehensive support that includes a nurturing home environment, maternity and infant supplies, personalized mentorship, transportation assistance, educational opportunities, and empowering life skills; and

WHEREAS,

Angela's journey has served as a beacon of light and hope for other women with similar circumstances, and she is now considered Godmother to 68 babies who existence she played a part in;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Auntie Angie's House as a lifeline for expectant mothers and for creating healthier futures for all citizens, and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 1, 2024 as "AUNTIE ANGIE'S HOUSE APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
