Recipient shall carry out and perform such activities as described in Exhibit D, in a satisfactory and proper manner. Recipient acknowledges that the goods and/or services described in Exhibit D shall be used not only for the benefit of Recipient, but also in furtherance of the regional goals of the UASI program. Should Recipient become incapable of utilizing any goods or equipment provided hereunder, then Recipient agrees to make same available to another local jurisdiction at ARC's direction. Recipient's failure to either utilize any goods or equipment provided hereunder, or to make same available to another local jurisdiction, may result in a loss of funding and/or equipment to Recipient. At the conclusion of the Project, ARC shall provide Recipient with an appropriate document which accurately reflects the actual retail value of all equipment and/or services provided to Recipient associated with the Project. In addition to the terms and conditions expressed in Paragraph 2 hereinabove, Recipient agrees that should all or any portion of the grant funds used for or in connection with the project described herein subsequently be disallowed for any reason by DHS, GEMA or any other concerned funding agency (whether by virtue of audit or otherwise), then, in that event, upon demand, Recipient either shall return the equipment purchased with such disallowed funds in good condition (allowing for reasonable wear and tear) or reimburse ARC in cash for the fair market value of such equipment (or services).
4. Compliance with Grant Contract. Recipient agrees to be bound by all of the applicable terms and conditions of the Grant Contract (Exhibit E) including, but not limited to, the provisions regarding Exhibits, Reimbursement and Reporting Requirements "Audits (specifically including 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F)" Financial Regulations and Guides, National Initiatives, and Special Conditions.
5. Compliance with Laws and Regulations. Each party hereto agrees to comply with all applicable local, state and federal laws and regulations. All persons granted access to Protected Critical Infrastructure Information ("PCII") are responsible for safeguarding such information in their possession or control. PCII shall be protected at all times by appropriate storage and handling. Recipient shall not remove any "PCII" markings from any information. Each person who works with PCII is personally responsible for taking proper precautions to ensure that unauthorized persons do not gain access to it. The unauthorized release of PCII may result in criminal and/or administrative penalties. Recipient hereby acknowledges that its failure to comply with the above-referenced regulations and the PCII Program will constitute a material breach of the terms of this Agreement.

7. Inventory. Recipient acknowledges that grant funded equipment will be transferred to and owned by the recipient upon payment by ARC. Recipient understands that ARC shall have no responsibility for the maintenance or upkeep of transferred equipment but must be granted access to review equipment upon request. ARC shall monitor Recipient to ensure that equipment is properly held and maintained. Recipient shall maintain an inventory of all grant funded equipment and provide a copy to ARC. Recipient will submit an updated inventory every year thereafter or as equipment is disposed of. Equipment must be used for the intended purpose for the life of the equipment. ARC must be given a written disposition plan for any equipment that has a value of $5,000 or more at the end of its useful life.

8. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. In the furtherance of this Agreement, it may be necessary or desirable for ARC to disclose to Recipient certain confidential information, including, without limitation, writings, drawings, computer software, documentation and hardware, and ARC wishes to prohibit the unauthorized use and disclosure of same by the Recipient. The parties acknowledge all documents and information communicated or provided to the County are subject to the Georgia Open Records Act (the "ACT"). Subject to the Act, for the purpose of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean all information marked "Confidential" and received by Recipient from ARC, unless otherwise explicitly marked or designated. Recipient acknowledges that the Confidential Information is and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of ARC and that ARC has the exclusive right, title and interest to such Confidential Information. No right or license, by implication or otherwise, is granted by ARC as a result of this Agreement or as a result of any disclosure of Confidential Information. Information initially furnished verbally or visually and identified beforehand as confidential at the time of disclosure shall be reduced to writing and confirmed as Confidential information in a written statement that fully identifies the material considered confidential within fifteen (15) business days after its initial disclosure. During that fifteen (15) business day period, the latter information shall be protected, but failure so to identify, reduce to writing, mark and deliver such verbally or visually disclosed information in the manner prescribed shall relieve Recipient of all obligations of protection with respect to said disclosed information thereafter.

Recipient shall maintain all Confidential Information in confidence and shall not disclose same to any third party. In protecting such information from disclosure, Recipient shall use at least the same degree of care as it normally uses in the protection of its own confidential and proprietary information of like kinds. Recipient further agrees that it will not (i) use any Confidential Information received except for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) disclose same to persons in its organization without a "need to know", or (iii) make unnecessary copies of same. Upon discovery of an unauthorized, inadvertent or accidental disclosure, Recipient shall promptly notify ARC of such disclosure and shall take all reasonable steps to retrieve the disclosure and prevent further such disclosures.

The restrictions herein shall not apply with respect to Confidential Information which:

Is or becomes known to the general public without breach of this Agreement; or

Was previously known to the Recipient or was possessed by it without restriction prior to any disclosure hereunder; or

Is or has been lawfully disclosed to Recipient by a third party without an obligation of confidentiality; or

Is disclosed pursuant to judicial action or government regulations.

Recipient shall not disclose any Confidential Information furnished hereunder in any manner contrary to the laws and regulations of the United States of America, or any agency thereof, including but not limited to Export Administration Regulations of the U.S. Department of Commerce and U.S. Department of State. This obligation shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement, and shall be independent of any other obligations, any limitations thereon, and any exceptions thereto, which may be stated elsewhere in this Agreement.
