

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Fulton County is committed to uplifting residents whose leadership, creativity, and service impact our communities in powerful and lasting ways; and

WHEREAS, on February 1, 2025, Tatenda Rameau was crowned Miss Fulton County, a distinction that honors not only excellence in scholarship and performance, but also service and purpose; and

WHEREAS, Tatenda has embraced this role with passion and purpose, representing Fulton County with integrity, vision, and an unwavering commitment to equity in the arts; and

WHEREAS, Tatenda's Community Service Initiative, A.R.T. – Amplify Artists. Raise Awareness. Transform Communities, seeks to spotlight the transformative power of creativity, amplify underrepresented voices, and cultivate inclusive spaces where every dream and talent can thrive; and

WHEREAS, through workshops, public engagement, and advocacy, she has empowered emerging artists, elevated awareness about barriers in arts education and access, and used her platform to inspire confidence, connection, and innovation; and

WHEREAS, Tatenda Rameau's journey is a testament to the power of service — as she herself says, “Service is the art of making the overlooked visible — shining a light on stories, dreams, and communities that deserve to be seen”; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her service, Tatenda brings extraordinary talents and experiences to her reign: raised on three continents, fluent in multiple languages, a former NCAA award-winning athlete, a Johns Hopkins-published scholar, and a dedicated improv theatre apprentice;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes and commends Tatenda Rameau, Miss Fulton County 2025, for her exceptional service, leadership, and contributions to the cultural and civic life of our county, and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 14, 2025, as “TATENDA RAMEAU APPRECIATION DAY” in Fulton County, Georgia.
