Primary Policy Priority: BHCC Funding

- The budget released by Governor Kemp on Friday, January 13 includes $5,688,919 to operate a Behavioral Health Crisis Center (BHCC) for adults within Fulton County.
- Serving as a regional facility, the BHCC would offer 15 crisis beds and 18 temporary observation chairs.
- We continue to engage delegation members and other key stakeholders to advocate for this funding.

Other Fulton County Priorities

- Fulton County is collaborating with the City of Atlanta and other metro counties in review of data and opportunities for legislation to address commercial appeals process.
- Fulton County is working with delegation members to introduce local legislation to address the low-income senior homestead exemption.
- Fulton County is meeting with legislators to finalize sponsorship for bills related to the remaining priorities: Equal Access to Judicial Personnel Benefits and Codification of legal representation for minors in legitimation, dependency and termination cases.
