

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Klymaxx is a legendary female Pop and R&B band from Los Angeles, California whose string of hits dominated radio airwaves in the 1980's, and have become known as one of the few all-female R&B bands to play instruments, write, and produce their own music; and

WHEREAS,

Klymaxx was formed in 1979 and their debut album, Never Underestimate the Power of a Woman, was released in 1981, followed by their second album, Girls Will Be Girls; and

WHEREAS,

the band's third album, Meeting in the Ladies Room, produced the title hit, and their classic anthem, The Men All Pause, and I Miss You, which became the band's Pop breakthrough hit; and

WHEREAS,

Klymaxx was inducted into the Women Songwriters Hall of Fame in 2021, and younger generations have sparked a new fan base through social media and streaming platforms, extending the band's enduring legacy; and

WHEREAS,

Klymaxx continues to entertain their loyal fans, touring across the country with their string of classic hits and dancefloor anthems that paved the way for future female artists;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Klymaxx, led by Joyce "Fenderella" Irby, for their outstanding career and enduring impact on the music and entertainment industry, and does hereby proclaim Saturday, August 30, 2025, as "KLYMAXX APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia
