

Contract Renewal Evaluation Form

Date:	September 19, 2024
Department:	Library
Contract Number:	24ITBC141418B
Contract Title:	Special Collections for the Auburn Library

Instructions:

It is extremely important that every contract be rigidly scrutinized to determine if the contract provides the County with value. Each renewal shall be reviewed and answers provided to determine whether services should be maintained, services/scope reduced, services brought in-house or if the contract should be terminated. Please submit a completed copy of this form with all renewal requests.

1. Describe what efforts were made to reduce the scope and cost of this contract.

This contract is needs based. The Auburn library is a special library with an assorted collection based on specific requests. The amount spent each year is routinely less than the bid amount. There will not be an increase to this contract in the foreseeable future.

2. Describe the analysis you made to determine if the current prices for this good or service is reflective of the current market. Check all applicable statements and provide documentation:

Internet search of pricing for same product or service:

	Date of search:	Various prices for various titles. Prices are set based on market conditions and other factors.
	Price found:	Items purchased are in new condition
	Different features / Conditions:	Price changes are due to the age and demand of the product/item
	Percent difference between internet price and renewal price:	Various prices for various titles. Prices are set based on market conditions and other factors.

Explanation / Notes:

Prices for items sought for this category have a variant based on the nature of the selection. Books sought are specialized and are not routine purchases by nature. There is not a large fluctuation in pricing as prices remain constant for most searches for material.
