

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

The Fulton County Citizens Commission on the Environment advises the Board of Commissioners on development projects, community organizations, and individuals in Fulton County that exemplify environmentally sound practices; and

WHEREAS,

the Fulton County Citizens Commission on the Environment recognizes environmental achievements and accomplishments through an awards ceremony; and the Blue Heron Nature Preserve protects 30 acres of natural habitat where residents can experience woodland^o wetlands, and meadows without leaving the city of Atlanta; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

the Blue Heron Nature Preserve Education Programs students in Fulton County about the importance of environmental protection and preservation; and

WHEREAS,

Blue Heron offers after-school enrichment programs, field trips, and other education opportunities that help students develop empathy toward living things and a scientific curiosity of natural preservation, especially in an urban setting; and

WHEREAS,

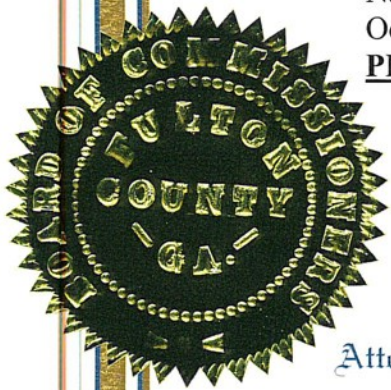

Blue Heron encourages students to collaborate and problem-solve as they discover, observe, and experiment in the outdoors; and

WHEREAS,

Blue Heron prepares young people to be better informed adults and stewards of the environment through preservation and protection;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of Fulton County recognizes the environmental contributions of the Blue Heron Nature Preserve Education Programs and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 15, 2025, as, "BLUE HERON NATURE PRESERVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.

Attest:

James R. Arain
Clerk to the Commission

Fulton County Board of Commissioners

DaBa
Commissioner

F U L T O N C O U N T Y