

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

The Inner City Muslim Action Network (IMAN) Atlanta is a community organization that strives to empower underprivileged communities and build bridges across racial, religious, and cultural lines; and

WHEREAS,

IMAN Atlanta is committed to addressing issues of social justice, including poverty, access to healthcare, criminal justice reform, and community development, and promotes the values of compassion, service, and solidarity, drawing on the teachings of Islam and the shared principles of all faiths; and

WHEREAS,

IMAN Atlanta has made significant contributions to the Atlanta community through its programs and initiatives, including the Green Reentry program, which provides job training and housing for formerly incarcerated individuals, and the Muslim Run campaign, No Taxation Without Representation, which seeks to promote restoring the right to vote to 266,000 formerly incarcerated individuals; and

WHEREAS,

IMAN is a community organization that fosters health, wellness, and healing in the inner-city by organizing for social change, cultivating the arts, and operating a holistic health center; IMAN's healthy eating campaign provides workshops and community building through a network of local businesses and urban farms, and is committed to serve, change, and inspire Atlanta;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes IMAN Atlanta for their tireless work in our local communities to improve the quality of living for all citizens, and does hereby proclaim Wednesday, April 12, 2023 as "IMAN ATLANTA APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
