

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

In 1902, when Butler Street and West Mitchell were the only C.M.E. churches in Atlanta, a group of pioneering Christians from Butler Street Church expanded the CME Church connection by organizing a new church named Holsey Temple, named after Bishop L.H. Holsey; and the new congregation first worshipped in a store front on Edgewood Avenue and Fort Street, and then relocated to a larger building on Edgewood Avenue and Randolph Street; and the members constructed a new building on the corner of Boulevard and Chamberlin Street, completing construction in 1914 with capacity seating for 300, two front entrances, and stained glass windows; and

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

WHEREAS,

the church's present location was established in 1964 and formal opening services were held on Sunday, March 1st of that year; and

WHEREAS,

Holsey Temple C.M.E.'s first pastor was Rev. A.A. Irving, who began a legacy of outstanding messengers of God's Holy teachings, including the current Pastor and Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr. Jerry D. Woodfork, Sr.; and

WHEREAS,

Holsey Temple C.M.E. has seen many major milestones over the past 120 years, including welcoming the first female Pastor, Rev. Pansy Washington, the re-establishment of a vibrant and active Bible Study, the establishment of the Saturday breakfast, a partnership with B.E.S.T. Academy and John Lewis Invictus Academy, and other partnerships with local elementary schools;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners congratulates the Pastor and congregation of Holsey C.M.E. Church for 120 years of ministry and service to the community, and does hereby proclaim Sunday, September 25, 2022 as "HOLSEY TEMPLE C.M.E. CHURCH 120TH ANNIVERSARY APPRECIATION DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
