

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week, held every April, celebrates the 911 dispatchers and telecommunicators who provide essential, life-saving support during emergencies; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators from Fulton County's Department of Emergency Services are the very first responders to residents in distress, connecting them to paramedics, police, and the fire department; and

WHEREAS, Fulton County's Public Safety Telecommunicators provide essential information to police and firefighters so they can respond safely and appropriately; and

WHEREAS, Fulton County's 911 Emergency Communications Center covers five cities throughout the county and fields more than 500,000 calls each year; and

WHEREAS, Fulton County's Public Safety Telecommunicators remain calm during high-stress situations and demonstrate compassion, understanding, and professionalism in the performance of their jobs every day;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners commends Fulton County's Public Safety Telecommunicators for their diligence and dedication in keeping our communities safe, and does hereby proclaim the week of April 12 through 18, 2026, as "NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK" in Fulton County, Georgia.
