

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

Charles "Chuck" E. Johnson, II was born on December 27, 1968 in Denver, Colorado second of three children to Wilma and Charles Johnson, Sr.; the family relocated to Atlanta, Georgia two years later and made it their home; and

WHEREAS,

Chuck graduated from Redan High School and earned scholarships to further his education at both Gordon Junior College and Southern Institute of Technology (now Kennesaw State University); he then went on to join the Lambda Delta Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. at Georgia Tech in 1989 where his line name was Kandyman because he always had candy in his pockets for anyone who asked; and

WHEREAS,

Chuck worked for his father's engineering firm, Williams, Russell & Johnson, from the age of 17 years old and never stopped; he also enjoyed coaching basketball and other sports, mentoring not only his own children, but an entire community of young people, on and off the court; and

WHEREAS,

Chuck's greatest accomplishment was his family; he met the love of his life, Lynn, in 1992 at Georgia Tech and they were joined in Holy matrimony in 1998, and this union was blessed with three sons, Chuck's pride and joy: Bryce, Branden, and Braylen; and in addition to his wife and sons, Chuck leaves to cherish his memory his father and stepmother, Charles and Beverly Johnson, Sr., his siblings, Beth and Duane, and a host of extended family and friends;

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Fulton County Board of Commissioners recognizes Charles E. Johnson, II for a life of integrity and dedication to his family and friends, and for his heroism, and does hereby proclaim Saturday, April 15, 2023 as "CHARLES E. JOHNSON, II REMEMBRANCE DAY" in Fulton County, Georgia.
