Summary & Background

Scope of Work: The Fulton County Juvenile Court (FCJC) seeks to further its mission to rehabilitate children and restore families through the continued provision of surveillance officer community supervision services to participants of Juvenile Court's HOPE and CHOICES drug treatment Accountability Court programs. These surveillance services provide required monitoring and community supervision ensuring compliance with orders imposed by the Court including curfew checks, random drug screens and employment checks.

Community Impact: Countywide impact includes the provision of monitoring and community supervision services to children and families in an effective manner that leads to the successful completion of court ordered supervision conditions; and the reduction of juvenile delinquency re-offense rates by discouraging substance abuse activity leading to future criminal behavior.

Department Recommendation: The Juvenile Court recommends contracts Renewed for the implementation of surveillance officer services to court involved children and families.

Project Implications: No future implications exist

Community Issues/Concerns: No issues have been raised.

Department Issues/Concerns: The Department does not have concerns.
