Summary & Background: Juvenile Court recommends acceptance of DIVAS proposal to provide the Strengthening Families Program. The Fulton County Family Treatment Court - HOPE is one of two Accountability Court Programs offered at the Court. HOPE Program participants are court-involved adult females with a history of substance abuse and trauma who are parents/caregivers of a child or children and who have an open Department of Family and Children Services (DFCS) case in assessment and/or Family Preservation. HOPE participants reside in Fulton County, Georgia, and are required to participate actively in substance abuse treatment as directed by the substance abuse treatment provider and the Court. To be eligible for this program, the participant must not exhibit violent behavior and must have expressed a desire to maintain or obtain custody of their child(ren).

Scope of Work: The treatment provider will coordinate and facilitate the all duties associated with delivering the Strengthening Families Program.

Community Impact: With these services, we will be able to provide families of Fulton County with evidence-based therapy.

Department Recommendation: Juvenile Court recommends approval of DIVAS, Inc. proposal with one grant renewal upon securing additional grant funding.

Project Implications: If not approved, Juvenile Court will not has access to evidence-based services that aid in the reunification of families.

Community Issues/Concerns: No concerns have been raised by constituents or clients related to this program.

Department Issues/Concerns: The department has no issues/concerns regarding this contract.
